* The Federal Privacy Act of 1974 authorizes the school to require the disclosure of Social Security Numbers by applicants and students for the purpose of identification and verification of student records, including registration, financial aid, and academic records and for verification of identity in the provision of school services. The school does not use your Social Security Number for student identification. It is only used to assign your CRI student identification number (CRIID). All applicants must complete the Residency Form.

* CRI Counter Terrorism Training School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, status as a disabled individual, sexual orientation, gender identity/expression, genetic information or protected veteran's status, in employment, treatment, admission, access to educational programs and activities, or other School benefits or services. Additionally, CRI endeavors to provide reasonable accommodations and to ensure equal access to qualified persons with disabilities. Inquiries concerning perceived discrimination or requests for disability accommodations may be referred to the Administration Office.
