

Personal Protection in the Home

Sunday
January 26, 2025

This course follows the NRA's Personal Protection in the Home curriculum, and is intended for those with a desire to incorporate a handgun into their home protection strategy. This course is intended for those with a basic familiarity with their handguns, and able to demonstrate mastery of safe gun handling. We will review the fundamentals, but the primary focus is on realistic defensive techniques inside the home; how to respond to an intruder; and what to expect post-incident.

9:30am-5:30pm
Fee: $235

- Understand and apply NRA's three rules for safe

This course is taught by an experienced and dynamic instructor, Yael Lagana. Yael grew up in the Greater Yellowstone region with firearms as a way of life. She has been a wildlife tour guide since 2014 specializing in bear and wolf sightings. Her connection to nature has given her a unique and intuitive way to prioritize safety and preparedness.
